

Types of Compliance Checks

We offer the following different levels of Compliance Checks to suit your needs:

Level One - Basic Compliance Check

- Compliance check of Continuing Airworthiness Inspections and requirements nominated by the Registration Holder/Operator in the Logbook Statement
- Assessment of All Australian and Country of Origin Airworthiness Directives issued since January 2010
- Assessment of all Airframe type and Engine type Airworthiness Directives applicable to your Aircraft
- Assessment of all Modifications carried out on aircraft

Level Two - Detailed Compliance Check

- Level One Compliance Check; and
- Assessment of all mandatory Airframe and Engine Service Bulletins
- Assessment of all Components (including on condition components)
- Assessment of all Service Bulletins

Level Three - Full Compliance Check

- Level One and Two Compliance Checks; and
- C of A Full Australian Airworthiness Directive Assessment and Listing
- Any additional requirements

Level Four – Specific Compliance Check

- Compliance check tailored to your specific requirements

Requirements and Information

Before

We require the following items before the commencement of a Compliance Check:

Current copy of Maintenance Release (photocopy)
Original Aircraft Logbooks, including all Airframe Logbooks, and the Engine & Propeller Logbooks containing overhaul details
Current controlled copy of the relevant Aircraft Data
Current controlled copy of the System of Maintenance (if applicable)
Due list from current Maintenance Tracking Software (if possible)
Copies of EO & Modification Documents

During

Our qualified Staff will complete the compliance check in a timely manner, and liaise with you if there is any further information required.

After

What we will provide you with a Compliance Check Report containing the following:

- Electronic copy of Avtrac Form 050 Maintenance Due List (by Hours, Date, Ldgs & Cycles)
- Electronic copy of Avtrac Form 060 N/Rec Airworthiness Directive Compliance List
- Electronic copy of Avtrac Form 065 Modifications List
- If Applicable: Electronic copy of Avtrac Form 070 Service Bulletin Compliance List
- If Applicable: Electronic copy of Avtrac Form 055 On Condition Components List
- Form 002 Deficiency Notification
- Offer for ongoing Maintenance Tracking using Avtrac
- Any additional Support